Announcements:

Troy Lochhead, president-elect, called for volunteers to go to the other Rotary clubs to sell tickets to the Gold Raffle on March 18th. This is a mandatory event for all members who are expected to either buy or sell 2 raffle tickets each. This is a grand affair, you can purchase silent and live auction items that benefit the Club's service projects. Karen Strawn added that call her with ideas about what types of auction items you'd like to see at the event. If you can bring a $30 bottle of wine that will be included with some of the other items Karen is bringing.

Rich Hinshaw announced that the 4-Way speech regional competition will be March 19th at the Fremont Club, the Club's winner will be trying to win to get to the District 5300 competition held during the District Conference in San Diego. Please try to support our Club's winner.

Mitchell Horst invited everyone out to Anthem Country Club on April 7th from 1 to 3 to view the Dan Stover Music regional competition. Jessica will be opening up the wine locker for those who would like a nice glass. Please let Mitchell know you're coming so he can put you on the invited guest list.

Cliff Dieterle announced that the next Happy Feet shoe delivery will be April 18th from 9:45 am to 11:00 am at Dean Petersen ES, 3650 Cambridge St.

Adrienne Cox announced that it's that time of year again for GSE to visit us. The GSE team is visiting this year from India, and will be here from April 14-18.

Last week Rebecca Collett announced that it was our members last chance to buy a ticket to the Assistance League's annual fund raiser. In 2012, Joanne Blystone purchased a ticket and won a $5,000 trip from Prestige Travel; this year Karen Strawn purchased a ticket and again won the 1st prize of a $5,000 trip and a $100 recognition. Next year when Rebecca asks you may want to buy a ticket.

President Donnie announced that he's made an alliance with XL Landscape Development,

Recognitions:

At the beginning of February the Club held its annual 4-Way speech contest with seniors from Clark County high schools. For those of you who don't remember, this contest incorporates Rotary's 4-Way test into their speech.

"Of the things we think, say or do:

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?"

Jason Frederico was asked to recite the above and missed all four, earning a $50 recognition; Shawn Callahan was next to be asked and got 1 of the 4, earning him a $45 recognition; Secretary/Treasurer Josh Satterlee was then asked and got all four of them correctly earning a $25 Lawry's certificate.

Wally Emery was asked which member digs holes? Wally incorrectly guessed and earned a $100 recognition; Troy Lochhead was then asked and also missed earning her a $100 recognition; finally Mark Rowley was asked and he responded President Donnie, of course and earned a $25 Lawry's certificate.

Hank Falstad was asked to name the Club's croner, Hank answered incorrectly and earned a $100 recognition; Sean Tanko was next and also missed and earned a $100 recognition; Bryan Dzedziak finally answered that it was Richard Bowler and earned a $25 Lawry's certificate.

Gifts for the President:

President Donnie hit the jackpot this week when he received gifts from Jason Frederico, Cliff Dieterle, Troy Lochhead, Wally Emery and Rebecca Collett.

Amy gave the members a "Say Formula" for better speaking. This outline had 3 major areas of action – (1) start with a compelling opening; (2) anchor your points; (3) you-focused. She then gave us ideas for each of those 3 points.

- (1) Maybe use a statistic, or story, use silence to get your audience to focus on you, or maybe an activity to get them involved with you as the speaker.
- (2) Use an anecdote, or analogy, or an acronym or a story to anchor the points you want to make.
- (3) Get your audience "you-focused" by using an activity such as the Dorothy
