Announcements:

Cliff Dieterle reminded everyone that the last Community Service event for this Rotary year will be on May 29th to feed the homeless at Christ Episcopal Church; please participate in this last service project of the year.

Troy Lochhead announced that the last Greenspokes meeting for this year will be on May 9th at Angel Park putting green starting at 6 pm. The entire Club is invited but especially those Greenspokes needing meetings to shed their Greenspokes designation.

Recognitions:

Fred missed last weekend's District Assembly in Victorville because he was in Arizona. Pres Donnie awarded a $50 recognition for missing that great event.

Adrienne Cox was asked how the GSE team from India was doing; fine except they get up and out of their guest home by 7:30 am and don't return home until 10:30 pm or later. The team is getting a great opportunity to see how U.S. businesses run and how our home life compares to theirs. $50 recognition to Adrienne for her hard work with GSE (no good deed goes unpunished in this Club).

Joanne was recognized a $100 for attending the Women in Construction convention in Irvine, CA.

Richard Bowler was again asked about his firm's new office in Salt Lake City; they don't do any healthcare work, just help for finance and banking interests, this earned Richard another $100 recognition.

Ric Colvin, who arrives via Karen Strawn each week, does not have to undergo any more physical therapy and looks forward to getting his driver's license back soon. For this great work Karen gets a $25 credit and Ric a $100 credit for coming to the meeting.

Gifts for the President: Keith Thomas presented Pres Donnie with 10 expensive t-shirts he bought at St. Jude's Ranch when he arrived for the "cancelled" community service project. Cliff did call everyone, he thought, so he and Pres Donnie each took a $25 recognition.

Joke: our resident jokester, Dr. Scott, read a joke given to him by Cliff. It was not very good so he was recognized $25.

Our Speaker: Kim Schaefer, Downtown Project

Kim gave the club a great presentation on what is happening with the Downtown Project. This project, entirely funded by Zappo's founder Tony
